ABOUT

Lobe is a 4DSOUND spatial sound studio located centrally in Vancouver's Strathcona neighborhood. Lobe operates on the unceded traditional and ancestral homelands of the xwmeθkwəyəm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), and Səlilwətaʔ/Selilwitulh (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations.

PROGRAM

Lobe's Residency Program promotes the creation of new works in spatial sound, the exploration of interdisciplinary applications of spatial sound, and making spatial sound technology accessible to all listening communities.

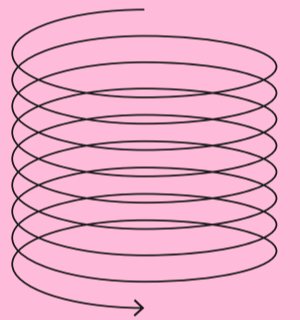

DETAILS

Artist Residencies at Lobe are a minimum of two weeks.

Typically residencies last between two and four weeks, however artists are welcome to apply for a shorter or longer residency duration.

RESIDENCY INCLUDES

- 20 hours/week (4 hours a day, 5 days a week) dedicated time in Lobe Studio
- Thorough tutorial and training on the 4DSOUND software/hardware system
- Full technical support, advice and mentorship
- Artistic Mentorship
- Access to Lobe Mac Studio
- Access to Lobe 4DSOUND software license
- Access to Lobe's Ableton Live Suite license
- Membership to Lobe's Spatial Sound Community (in-person + online discussion)

FUNDING

Strathcona Spatial Sound Society offers a partial bursary to Artists accepted into our Residency program, applied towards studio fees.

Lobe is recognized by many funding bodies. For some guidance with applying for and securing funding, please indicate this in your application. If you have any questions prior to applying, please don't hesitate to contact us.

PERFORMANCE

Artist Residencies are primarily intended for research and creation. If your project goals involve public performance, Lobe is a fully functional performance venue and can be customized to your needs.

This involves a separate contract and fee from your Artist Residency. Please indicate interest in your residency application, and we will work with you to create a quote.

This cost can be incorporated into applications for funding your residency.
